Business description

Total Combination Package – suggesting creative ideas to customers

Marusada has been specializing in the packaging business since its foundation in 1875. It manufactures and deals in corrugated boards, paper cores/tubes, plastic cases, and packaging materials. It also specializes in packaging machines and logistics-related machines to comprehensively assist customers in reducing cost, packaging and improving logistics. Marusada strives to add value to its customers' precious products by providing better solutions in packaging and logistics.

The current packaging environment is rapidly changing - Marusada keeps up with rapid technological changes to fully understand the challenges of its customers and comes up with improvements based on its principles on customer service. Marusada makes every effort to contribute to its customers.
